FOREWORD

Findmystuff offers cheap and easy-to-use GPS tracking services and products for people, pets and vehicles to a number of worldwide customers. Our products and services range from 100% FREE SMS-based GPS tracking service to fleet management and tracking applications. We are proud to have made available to our customers a fairly wide selection of GPS trackers and tracking solutions for do-it-yourself as well as professional users.

Of course, do-it-yourself GPS tracking needs are sometimes different than professional ones: no matter which side are you on, however, a reliable purchase guide becomes essential when choosing from many different products each one coming available with a number of important and differentiated features.

Within this easy-to-read purchase guide, you will find we reported an extensive list of possible uses regarding our full selection of GPS trackers, whose product codes you are also going to find listed on the first table column on your left. A careful performance assessment and features evaluation of each available GPS tracker in our selection was carried out to identify suitability of each tracker to every possible use on our list. By assigning a mark ranging from one (less suitable) to five (most recommendable) asterisks to every model, the most suitable tracker for any forecasted operational situation is clearly outlined. We cordially invite you to rely on this purchase guide in order to find out what is the best Findmystuff GPS tracker for you.
